

FLIGHTWAY

COMPANY PRESENTATION

Background

Flightway General Trading LLC is a trading company with the primary focus to supply various materials and spare-parts for the aviation sector.

Flightway holds approval from the Dubai Civil Aviation Authority for aviation spare parts trading and other components for aircraft reparation, maintenance, renovation and efficiency upgrading, as well as provision of safety and security systems or others.

We are headquartered in Dubai, United Arab Emirates, a vital and global aviation hub. Partner companies in Hamburg, London and Istanbul allow for a global network and contact points.

Profile

Flightway is a consultancy, Project Manager and Business Development Manager in traditional and emerging markets. Our competencies include, but are not limited to, fleet planning, finance & leasing, due diligence, maintenance, spare parts, certification and CAMO projects.

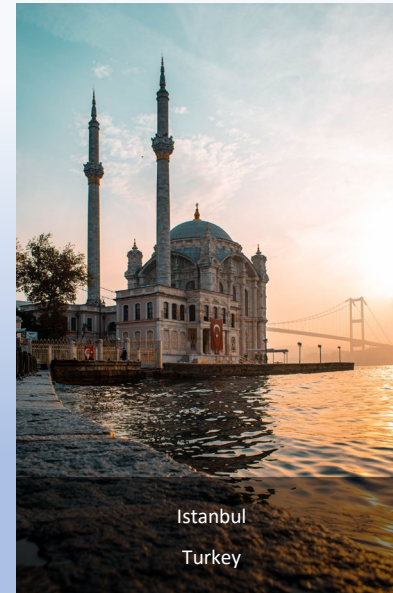

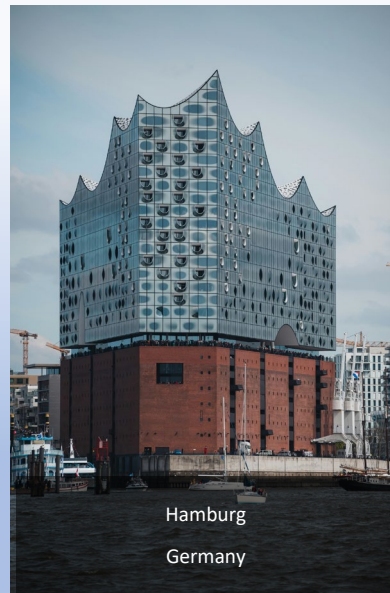

We have sister and partner companies in Europe and the Middle East, guaranteeing global access and communication points. Our 'off-market' approach results in the most efficient outcomes for our clients.

A global network of OEMs, major, mid-level and off-market leasing companies, asset managers, MROs, engineering & CAMO, simulator & training facilities and spare-part suppliers safeguard best products at attractive pricing.

Flightway and its partner companies represented as the mandated agent numerous national, semi-governmental, private and start-up airlines.
